BEHR HAS TROUBLE HOLDING HIS TITLE

Young Throckmorton Gives Middle States Champion Hard Tennis Race.

MISS BJURSTEDT WINNER

MOUNTAIN STATION, N. J., June 26 .-Karl H. Behr, a member of last year's international team and ranked third among the lawn tennis players of the country, had the time of his life holding on to his Middle States championship on the Orange Lawn Tennis Club courts here to-day. The internationalist did manage to defend the title against Harold A. Throckmorton, the eighteen-yearold challenger, but it took him five sets to gain his victory at 6-4, 7-5, 4-6, Middle States cup and will have to win it only once more to own it.

Both of the women's titles went to Miss Molla Bjurstedt, the national cham-The Norwegian triumphed over Miss Ina A. Kissel of Philadelphia with the greatest ease at 6-1, 6-3, and in Miss Florence Ballin in straight sets at -0. 6-4. Both of Miss Bjurstedt's matches were final round affairs, for in the singles Mrs. Edward Raymond, the holder, did not defend and there is no challenge round to the women's doubles. Young Throckmorton showed a great deal of natural tennis ability and also some faults that might easily be cured Once the youngster has overcome the tendency to expend too much energy o impossible strokes and learns to kee his feet behind the service line when delivering he will rapidly come to the top. Again to-day as yesterday th youngster made glaring foot faults

AGAIN WITH MERION

Briggs Does Best Bowling in Halifax Cup Match at Haverford.

BOTH TEAMS BAT WELL

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.- Another drawn game in the Hallfax cup company tion resulted in the contest between the New York team and the Merion Cla to-day at Haverford. Both sides batter in exceptionally good style, but J. H Briggs, on the New York side, was the only bowler to accomplish much with the ball. Merion batted first and J. L. Evans and S. W. Mifflin stayed together, each registering over 30. The best stand Vetterlein was partnered by H and Vetterlein was not disposed of the he had scored 79, while Pearce ran up 42 before being bowled by Briggs The Merion innings totalled 258, Briggs can turing 6 wickets at a cost of 84 runs After H. B. Boyce had been sent back for 13, J. L. Poyer and B. Kortlang made an invaluable stand for New York and each batsman scored over fifty before losing his wicket. Then E. H. L. Steinthal ran up 38 in characteristic style, and when time was called the total was 171 for six wickets.

The playing of C. C. Callaghan at the wickets was exceptionaly good, he stumping two men and cathing two others. The score: MERION C. C.
